

International Office

DAAD Prize for Outstanding Achievements of International Students and PhD Candidates 2024

The German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) will award the DAAD Prize for outstanding achievements of international students and PhD candidates at German Universities in 2024. The prize honours international students who have demonstrated both academic excellence and outstanding social and intercultural achievements in society. The DAAD Prize is worth 1.000,00€.

Eligibility & Selection Criteria

- International students and PhD-Candidates who did not receive their university entry qualification from a German high school ("Bildungsausländer")
- Must be currently enrolled at Osnabrück University as a degree-seeking student (an application is possible up until three months after graduation)
- Demonstrated academic excellence
- Social and intercultural achievements in society
- Students must be at least in their fourth semester of their bachelor studies or in their second semester of their master / PhD

Application documents

- Application form (available at www.uni-osnabrueck.de/index.php?id=1590)
- CV
- Letter of motivation (1 page, informally)
- Transcript of Records / OPIuM
- Certificates / written documentation of social and intercultural achievements in society
- Recent report / letter of recommendation from a professor at Osnabrück University

Deadline

Complete applications may be sent to annika.grosse@uni-osnabrueck.de as a single PDF-document until 1 September 2024.

If you have any questions, feel free to contact:

International Office
Annika Große
Neuer Graben 27 (StudiOS), Raum 19/110
Tel. +49 541 969 4583
annika.grosse@uni-osnabrueck.de