Accommodation

Osnabrück University's International Office will arrange your accommodation. Depending on availability and your preferences, you will either be accommodated in a centrally-located student dorm or in a carefully selected home-stay, i.e. a single room for your private use in a shared apartment in Osnabrück. All accommodation options are equipped with kitchen and bathroom facilities. All rental costs are included in the course fee. You will be able to state a preference in your Declaration of Acceptance if your application proves successful. For further information, please refer to our website.

You need to write this letter of motivation entirely on your own and without any assistance. This enables us to determine not only your motivation, but also your English proficiency and thus your ability to follow the German language courses (whose secondary language of instruction is English) and the cultural program.

What is your motivation to participate in the Germany in Wintertime program?
